Stockholm, March 3.

LAST Wedneſday the States were aſſembled in Pleno, when the Houſe of Nobles communicated to the other Orders their Reſolution which was taken laſt Monday about the King's Aſſurances; and the three other Orders reſolved immediately to agree entirely with the Nobility in the Amendments, and notified their Aſſent the ſame Morning: In Conſequence of which, they were expedited to the Grand Deputation, where a Reſolution was taken, that the Marſhal of the Diet, and the Speakers of the other three Orders, ſhould attend the King with a Copy of the Aſſurances as now regulated, and deſire to know when his Majeſty would be pleaſed to receive the Grand Deputation, with the Act that was to be preſented to him for his Signature.

Accordingly the Four Speakers attended His Majeſty Yeſterday, who was pleaſed to anſwer them, That he had ſo much Confidence in the States, that there was no Occaſion for the Copy they had brought him; and that whenever the Aſſurances were preſented to him by the States, he would ſign them. It is ſuppoſed this Ceremony will be performed To-morrow.

Saxe-Gotha, March 10. This Morning about Five o'Clock died, at his Palace of Friedenſtein, after a long and painful Illneſs, in the 73d Year of his Age, his Serene Highneſs Frederic Duke of Saxe-Gotha, to the great Grief of his Subjects, over whom he had reigned near Forty Years, univerſally beloved and reſpected.

Whitehall, March 24.

ADvice is received, by a Letter from Governor Leyborne to the Earl of Hillſborough, dated at Grenada the 6th of January laſt; as alſo by a Letter from Rear Admiral Mann to the Lords of the Admiralty, dated the 4th of the ſame Month, that, in the Night of Friday the 27th of December, a Fire broke out in the Town of St George in that Iſland, and that the whole Town was before Morning reduced to Aſhes, except ſome Buildings at the Careenage, and next the Court-houſe and Cuſtom-houſe, ſaved chiefly by the Activity of ſome Seamen ſent from on Board His Majeſty's Ships lying off the Town.

The Flames were ſo rapid, that, notwithſtanding the active Aſſiſtance given by the Officers and private Men of His Majeſty's 70th Regiment, few of the Inhabitants were able to ſave any of their Effects; and the Loſs is ſuppoſed to amount to upwards of Two Hundred Thouſand Pounds Sterling.

As ſoon as the Fire was extinguiſhed, His Majeſty's Governor ſummoned the Inhabitants to meet together, to conſider what Meaſures it might be proper to purſue.— A Committee was appointed to purchaſe and collect together in one Place, all the Proviſions that could be got, that the Inhabitants might know where to apply for immediate Subſiſtence.——A Subſcription was ſet on Foot by the Governor for the Relief of the poorer Sufferers; to which the Merchants and Planters contributed with great Liberality.——Two Veſſels in the Government's Service were diſpatched to the neighbouring Iſlands to procure Proviſions, one of which returned on the 3d of January with her Loading; and every Meaſure has been adopted by His Majeſty's Governor that could be deviſed, to alleviate the Diſtreſſes of the Sufferers under ſo dreadful a Calamity.

St. James's, March 24.

The King has been pleaſed to grant unto John Foſter, Doctor in Divinity, the Place and Dignity of a Prebendary of His Majeſty's Free Chapel of St. George in the Caſtle of Windſor, void by the Death of Dr. John Sumner, late one of the Prebendaries of the ſaid Free Chapel.
